REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:

-Laundry drain backs up into shower during use. -Left lavatory faucet in master bathroom has low pressure.

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:

-The shower drain was partially clogged. The laundry drain ties into this shower drain so when the laundry was going through a drain cycle access water would backup into the shower. I used the PowerSpin drain snake to clean the shower drain and tested by filling and draining the shower pan as well as running the laundry machine through a short cycle. -The aerator in the left lavatory faucet in the master bathroom was clogged up, causing a decrease in flow rate. I replaced this aerator, as well as the one in the right faucet in the same bathroom, and the faucet in the guest bathroom so the pressure matches.
