REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:

when the kitchen faucet is being used, a slight dripping noise can be heard in the basement enclosed ceiling so cannot check visibly, no dampness on ceiling but suspect small leak ongoing for 6 months when kitchen faucet is used, can hear water being drained in one direction, past 2 months hear water being drained in other direction....clogged drain? water still drains out now...have washing machine in kitchen, during rinse cycle, there is a water leak, can see water running down chimney in basement in furnace room...luckily not a finished room...just concrete floors may be hard to get at leaky pipes"

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:

-Snaked kitchen drain line, removed washing machine and snaked that line as well. Filled sink several times and ran washing machine through cycle.
