REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:

-Leak from our instant hot water heater unit under kitchen sink - seems to be at joint between heater and hose. -Left lavatory sink in master bathroom draining slowly.

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:

-I replaced the coupling on the hot water heater that was believed to have been the source of the leak but during testing found that the leak was coming from the tank itself. The unit will have to be replaced(pricing to follow in separate email) -I cleared both lavatory drains in the master bathroom and tested by filling and draining both sinks.

TECHNICIAN RECOMMENDATIONS:

There is staining on the drainage under the left lavatory sink in the master bathroom. This staining was from a small drip coming from the mechanical drain. The drain cannot be repaired. I left a small Tupperware container under the drain so it can be used until replacement can be made.
