REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:

The sink monster and sock monster have invaded the washing machine! I think the tube thingy that connects to the washer is loose and moving around and it was dripping water on Sunday afternoon. I'm terrified to do laundry now and I definitely don't want a flood. If you can come and tighten the thingy up so it doesn't leak, that would be awesome!

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:

I ran the machine through a large fill & drain cycle and found no signs of leaking. I believe the water leaked from the machine itself but I cannot say for sure where this leak originated. Rachel has decided that rather than have an appliance repairman try and repair the existing unit she will will replace it. I took measurements and suggested calling Lawrence at Handy Appliance.
