REASON FOR TODAY'S CALL:

Hi, My condo's kitchen faucet is leaking and I would like to get it fixed. I was told that it usually means that you have to replace a cartridge. My friend tried to replace the cartridge but he wasn't able to open the faucet even after removing a screw so it appears to be stuck. Thanks, Arvind

DESCRIPTION OF WORK PERFORMED:

I was able to remove the old cartridge and install the new one supplied by the customer. Tested and in good working order.

TECHNICIAN RECOMMENDATIONS:

The undermount kitchen sink has become detached from the countertop and is resting 1/4" down on the metal strapping. This should be resiliconed and properly supported.
